

JACKSON PLACE

— CONDOMINIUMS

Imagine the drama of a gallery leading into a living space so wide open and light filled that it takes your breath away. The Delano provides all the right angles for such a scenario beginning with the length of its foyer that bursts open to an expanse of uncluttered space, sunlit by windows on two sides, an element exclusive to its corner setting. Here the kitchen is the only area truly defined with its generous counter space and granite island. You interpret the remaining space, defining each area by the arrangement of your furniture. Bedroom suites, discreetly accessed through alcoves, are private retreats with soaking tubs and spacious walk-in closets. The owner's bath also offers dual sinks and separate shower; and the second bedroom easily becomes a home office with the luxury of a view.
